

Haselton

Gainesville, GA

Haselton offers new construction homes in Gainesville, Georgia, featuring Fischer Homes' Maple Street Collection. Located along Buffington Farm Road off Cagle Road in Hall County, the community has roadway connections to Lula Road (GA-52). Future planned amenities include a pool, pickleball, and a cabana. Shopping and dining options in the Gainesville area include the Kroger-anchored New Holland Market and the boutiques, galleries, and restaurants around downtown Gainesville Square. Outdoor recreation destinations include Lake Lanier Olympic Park, with a public boat ramp, fishing, and picnic areas, and Don Carter State Park, with hiking trails, paddling, and boating on Lake Lanier. Haselton is located in the East Hall High School attendance area.
